

Narration 3:

Narrator 1: On one green hill, shepherds watched their flocks and were told of the coming of their Savior. On another green hill, over thirty years later, that same Savior would give His life for all of us.

Narrator 2: It is the Savior's Atonement that allowed the fulfillment of the angel's song "Goodwill henceforth from heaven to men begin in never cease." He allowed us all the chance to be reconciled to God though we distance ourselves from Him by our sins.

Narrator 3: The last verse of There Is a Green Hill Far Away, then tell us what we should do to thank our Savior. "Dearly, dearly have He loved, and we must love Him too. And trust in His redeeming blood, and try His works to do."
